

I'm requesting that you do not change the present law in regards to telephone solicitation and privacy. Our time at home is peaceful now. The sales calls recieved have dropped dramatically. The number of calls were 3-8 call a day and now we only received one every couple of weeks. Our family time is less often interrupted since the law came into effect. Do not change this law that has increased our privacy at home.